REW. HAGANS & HALL TDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 26.

won a great Victory. Our majorihave been reduced, but we have ent the State. Our whole State tick selected by a majority that cannot below 3,500, and may reach 4 500. shall have almost, if not quite, our ual majority in the Legislature. We ve beyond all peradventure elected r Congressmen in the First and Sec. d Districts; and such returns as have e to hand from the Third remove hatever misgivings we have had as to e result there. We have no longer y doubt of Gen. Witcher's election a handsome majority.

"Treason has done its worst," Vest Virginia is unscathed. Never did e rebel Democracy make such efforts. laver before was their organization so ompact and complete. Never did they brow so much money into a canvas or use it so corruptly, _Attempts were nade in many parts of the State-and ve fear they were not always unsuccess ul-to buy the registration of men no ntitled to register. In two countles hat we have positive information of, Boards of Registration were approachd and offered large sums of money i they would do the bidding of the Democratic leaders. The boast has been made by Democrats in this city that in one county they secured the registration of two hundred men not qualified to register, for a dollar a head, How much the Democratic vote has been increased and the Republican majority reduced by such means as this, it is impossible yet to say. But despite the use of such means; despite the large sums of money sent from abroad and distributed through the State by such emissaries as that illustrious bummer. Adams, whom we had occasion to notice a few days ago, the Republicans of the State have maintained themselves nobly and are victorious at all points.

But the work is not quite done. We have one more fight to make and one more victory to win, and then we may reasonably hope the contest with expiring Treason will be over. And we can make a better fight and win a more signal victory to-morrow week than we did last Thursday. Do not suppose that our foes will give up the battle of November 3d without a struggle. On the contrary, they will make their last and most desperate effort. They expect that the Republicans, flushed with victory and fident, will be careless and unfitted for the fight, and their last hope of success rests upon the expectation that we will rely on the prestige of past victories rather than upon close, hard work We must guard against this danger. If our enemies were ready to abandon the field we might look for an easy victory; but rely upon it, they will die hard, and we must organize the next victory by hard work just as we did the last. Let us seal the work of last Thursday by putting a man in the place now disgraced by Andrew Johnson, who will give the country peace and who means by "peace" a state of tranquility and security wherein any honest man may speak his mind freely in any part of this great land without hindrance or molestation. Read this morning the terrible tale of fresh murder and outrage that comes up to us from the South. There must be an end of this, if the country is to have any prosperity. There is one remedy and only one. We know what that is, and we must do our part to apply it to-morrow week. Republican friends, we have one week to work; and a great deal can be done in that time to increase our vote. We shall have belp from many loyal Democrats who voted against us last Thursday. They have the same stake in the general welfare as we, and we think many of them realize that the election of Gen. Grant is a national necessity while that of Horatio Seymour, with Frank Blair behind him, ready to step into his shoes, would be a public calamity. But we must rely on ourselves, We can unaided achieve a great victory; but shall no less cordially welcome all who are willing to co-operate with us in electing the man who can give the country peace, who says he will if elected, and who has always kept his word.

Republican Meeting in 1st Ward. We are requested to say that a meet-ing of the Grant Club of Washington Township is to be held to-night at the Hose House, Business of the utmost importance is to be considered and it is very much desired that there shall be a full meeting, Turn out friends and make your arrangements to carry Washington Township for Grant tomorrow week. THE NEXT LEGISLATURE.

One of the lies which the Democrats ave most persistently adhered to in relation to our recent election is their statement that the nextoLegislature will be Democratic. The facts are just the contrary. That body will be nearly, if not fully, three-fourths Republican, And that our readers may see for themselves the extent of heard from as far as concerns the Leg-

A FUNNY PERFORMANCE.

A GREAT LET-DOWN FROM FRIDAY

The morning after the election the Register glorified in the following star ing head-lines preceded by a big roost-

"IMMENSE DEMOCRATIC GAINS! "THE STATE REDREMED! "WEST VIRGINIA DEMOCRATIC! "THE HOUR OF DELIVERANCE! "3000 MAJORITY IN THE STATE! "A GLOBIOUS VICTORY!"

"The returns from the election yesterday, as far as received, show immense and unexpected Democratic gains. The counties of Wood and Harrison alone show a clear Democratic gain of more than 800 votes. We have undoubtedly carsied the State of West Virginia by a majority of 3,000, electing a Governor, two Congressmen and a majority of the Legislature, thus securing, as we hope and believe, a Democratic Senator in the place of Mr. Van Winkle whose term expires next Spring.

"We had not anticipated a result so glorious. Nevertheless, it has come, like the best blessing of Heaven, and there is no reason to prevent our friends from relations. "The returns from the election yester-

"Democratic Gains," Instead of "The State Redeemed," it is only "a close vote," Instead of West Virginia Democratic, it is a "Probable Democratic Victory." Instead of the "Honr of Deliverance," the Day is only "Dawn ing," and "Dawning" is very mild. Instead of "3,000 majority in the State," it is only "cheering news for the friends of civil liberty," (Seymour's "friends") and instead of "a Glorious Victory," the "day of deliverance" only "Draweth Nigh." And here is what the Register said about it editori-
